

Esteemed classmates,

For those of you in the DC/Baltimore/Annapolis area that are beginning a job hunt, the SACC Job Fair will be held 11-12 May in Washington DC (link is below). Many of our class are looking to coordinate for the event so our hard-charging secretary has volunteered to run point. She made a facebook event for people to ask questions and help others. I know many of you aren't on fb so I wanted to let you know using classmail too.

If you would like to join up with the group, find the event on our class fb page or please contact Cara Albright at caramalbright@1996.USNA.COM.
