

Two reminders from my Class of 96 update:

1) It's time for the All Academy Challenge!

The fourth annual All Academy Challenge pitting Navy against its rivals at Army, Air Force, Coast Guard and Merchant Marine kicks off TODAY. The rules are simple—the Academy raising gifts from the largest percentage of its alumni wins. Help Navy bring home bragging rights AND help support the Brigade of Midshipmen with your gift, and by spreading the word among your classmates and fellow alumni.

Donate as little as $5 and pick where you want it to go. I just did it and it was super easy. Remember that next year these donations can count toward our Class Project.

Visit navy.allacademychallenge.com to learn more before 6 June.

2) Still looking for Company Reps

We have a handful that have volunteered but we still need a lot more. This won't be a lot of work but should hopefully be able to increase communications and help build our network.

Contact Shane McDonald at tonteauex@yahoo.com to volunteer.
